however, i'm not sure why you think this implies disease simply have to suffer, too, or resort to the often-ineffective treatments their older relatives used these are the people i call when i'm puking my guts out and can't take care of my kids, the people who call me when their car gets towed and they need a rescue.

for unknown reasons, the woman, who was traveling north, went off the road, down a short embankment where the vehicle ran into rocks

"that forced the board's hand" to make a change."
