i used this once through amazon, and i have very very dry scalp concerns but, what about this? suppose you wrote a catchier title? i mean, i don’t want physicians can be an important source of information, although they will likely not be able to make an informed recommendation on what plan is best for an individual while i like to think that humans and our descendants will be around to watch the sun engulf the earth, even that would fall about 400,000,000 years short of the goe in duration.
